

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT OF INTENT

Fire Protection Recycling Ltd (the 'Company') will comply with all its statutory legal duties in pursuance of providing safe and healthy working conditions for all employee's and will take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that other parties e.g. contractors, visitors, other tenants or members of the public, are affected by our work activities.

The company will co-operate with all those with an interest in health and safety e.g. clients, other employers, employee's, designers, contractors, and the enforcing authorities.

The Company will provide enough financial support for the full implementation of the H&S policy and maintain a suitable working environment which is safe and without risks to health. Also, the Company will ensure that all persons are competent to carry out the duties required of them and will provide all information, instruction, training and supervision required and necessary.

The Company will ensure that all employee's, are consulted on matters of health and safety and will encourage positive employee participation in them. All employee's and contractors are expected to co-operate in carrying out this policy and must ensure their own work, so far as is reasonably practicable, is carried out safely and without risks to themselves and others who they may come into contact with.

Whenever, an employee or contractor identifies a health and safety related problem or situation that they are unable to remedy themselves, they must immediately stop that activity, etc and report the matter to their Line Manager.

The Company will appoint a competent member of staff, to undertake responsibilities for Health, Safety and Welfare on sites we work on and at our own premise and to whom reference should be made in the event of any difficulty arising in the implementation of this policy.

The Director of the Company will monitor the implementation of this policy and whenever necessary, will utilise the assistance of a suitably qualified H&S specialist for further advice where required.

The policy will be kept up to date and will be amended as and when required, to suit any changes in the size and nature of the Company activities. In support of this intent the policy will be reviewed annually.
